

London Greenways Challenge 2022

Route #10 October - Wandle Trail

Route Description:Start at Mitcham Junction Train Station

Head down Carshalton Road

On right hand side of road take a right down Goat Road

Where the road become Middleton Road you take a sharp right up Watermead Lane and a minute up here you will join the Wandle Trail for the first time.

Wandle Trail then takes you through the gorgeous Poulter Park and then alongside the Watermeads Nature Reserve

At the end of the Reserve (heading North) you go through an underpass and a sharp right

Look out for the left turn which brings you alongside the River Wandle Heading along the trail brings you out at Ravensbury Park but you will effectively hug the trail beside the Wandle River

You pop out onto the main road - Morden Road

Go right and along here for a short bit - cross over

Keep an eye out for the trail turn into Morden Park

Trail goes through the middle of the park before swinging left and taking you across the river.

Right turn takes you through the centre of the other side of the park and you exit under the train line

Follow the river path for a while

Cross over Merantun Way

Turn right onto Merton High Street

When you are opposite Priory Road enter into Wandle Park

Go right through the centre of the park and out onto Byegrove Road

Small path - keep an eye on this bit - it is called Mead Path leading into Boundary Road

Go left onto the path (not the trail that goes straight ahead called Mead trail)
